

We have seen a significant drop in our daily sales for take out only and at one point shutting our doors completely. At 50 present capacity our sales are down also making it hard to pay staff and bills.