

It is important, now more than ever, to enact bipartisan climate change legislation. The issue of climate change doesn't just affect only Democrats or only Republicans - it affects us all. So why would we make it a partisan issue? I am in full support of SJM 5 because it is what will save us from ourselves.