

My wife and I own forestland and we have spent money to replant and control brush on these tracts. We have lost harvestable acres in riparian areas & will be dealing with environmental & market situations to reduce profits in the future. My wife (Glenda) & I oppose any new taxes on harvestable timber. William & Glenda Hales