

This makes total sense. It is safer for motorcyclists, eases traffic flow for both vehicles and motorcycles, as well as saving fuel. With no additional road improvement costs, there is no valid opposing argument.