

I support this bill. Having lived, and driven motorcycles in other countries where sharing the lane is legal, I feel much safer, and in more control when I am not forced to be a "sitting duck" in congested traffic. The ability to maneuver out of potential accidents is one the best defences a motorcyclists has from over drivers. The potential to get rear ended in stop and go traffic is a huge life-altering threat for motorcyclists.