

This would allow for more people to share the roads which are already strained with lots of travel. I think many more people would find that riding scooters or motorcycles saves a lot of time spent in traffic and would then help alleviate the number of cars on the road. Thank you.