

My primary mode of transit is by scooter. Being able to flow thru traffic will help ease congestion, thus allowing for more cars to flow thru intersections. This will allow for more efficient use of roads we have with out needing to continue to add more roads as people continue to move here.