

The Corporations and Businesses currently within Oregon if burdened with additional Government expenditures will be unable to successfully make a "Profit" within Oregon's Borders and will have no choice but to move their "Operations" to more "Tax Friendly States" as history has demonstrated.