

Do not limit the ability of our law enforcement officers to enforce the law. Just because equipment is military surplus does not automatically make it improper for civilian law enforcement. Allow our peace officers to receive and use ANY equipment that can be lawfully obtained by them.