

Dear Health Committee,

I am neutral on the main objective of this bill. However I am opposed to the requirement that health care interpreters be required to receive every single vaccination recommended by the CDC. Every vaccine is different, every human being's body and beliefs are unique and medical or philosophical exemptions should be made available. If it ain't broke don't fix it - there is no evidence of interpreters spreading diseases. Thank you.