

3 years ago my cousin was rear ended in traffic and sadly passed away. If he was allowed to lane split he would still be here with his family. Us riders are tenfold more aware of our surroundings than any other motorist. We need laws like this one to protect us. Our friends and family need this the most. It is time