

On a motorcycle or scooter (bikes) and stopped behind traffic is a dangerous situation. I usually frantically wave my arms to alert drivers behind that I am there, and stopped.

Sitting in traffic can cause the "bike" to overheat.

Both situations are compelling reasons to allow for lane splitting.

Thank you for considering.