

I personally have know many riders who have been injured or killed from being rear ended in traffic and squished between two cars. This could so easily be avoided if motorcycles could filter.