

This will cost lots of taxpayer money in court costs defending its legality, then it will cost more to pay back the costs of the citizens who brought suit. If the police have no record then there is no record and the person can own a firearm, come on man.
Rick Thomas