

This bill is absolutely ridiculous. If the Oregon State police can not do their job with the people they have, the governor (KATE BROWN) needs to allocate more money for them to do their job. But to hold the people of Oregon hostage because they do not have the resources to do so is a failure of this state to govern the people equally. It seems the people from Eugene on up get what ever they want. But the rest of the state gets nothing. Well it is time to get off your butts and use some common sense here and disapprove this ridiculous bill.
