

This gives police more power as to who get a gun or not. Gun control is rooted in racism. The police have an extensive history in targeting minority communities. This bill would allow State police to target communities of color from barring arms. A yes vote is racist and contrary to individual freedom.