

I support SB574. I commute on a motorcycle every day to and from work, rain or shine. The slower the traffic goes the less people feel they need to pay attention or so it seems. People checking their phones or just zoning out. Either way I come close to getting rear ended almost daily in traffic. Passing this bill could save my life.