

As a person who drives daily in California with lane splitting motorcycles. I have no problem with them and a haven't seen really any problems in 30 years