BACKGROUND:

The mission of the Oregon State University (OSU) Center for Small Farms and Community Food Systems is to advance sustainable agriculture, community food systems, and economic progress for Oregon's small farmers and ranchers and provide a leading-edge experience for students.

Senate Bill 1532 would direct the OSU Extension Service to expand the Center for Small Farms and Community Food Systems by cluster hiring to fill five additional organic specialist positions. By January 1, 2023, the measure would also direct the Oregon Business Development Department to conduct a market analysis of the Oregon organic products sector.
