STATE MORTUARY AND CEMETERY BOARD

The Governor has appointed the following individuals to the State Mortuary and Cemetery Board subject to Senate confirmation.¹

New Appointee

Kevin Loveland of La Grande

Reappointees

Nancy Felton of Gresham

Angela McKenzie-Tucker of Portland

Term

Loveland: March 1, 2022 – February 28, 2026

Felton: January 1, 2022 – December 31, 2025

McKenzie-Tucker: January 1, 2022 – December 31, 2025

Appointment/Confirmation Authority

ORS 692.300 \(2021\)

Statement of Economic Interest²

Not required.

Statutory Requirements³

The board consists of 11 members appointed by the Governor and subject to confirmation by the Senate.⁴ All members of the board must be residents of this state. For each vacancy on the board that is not a public member, the Governor may select from a list of three to five nominees submitted by professional organizations that represent individuals licensed, certified, or registered by the board or facilities regulated by the board. Members serve four-year terms and at the pleasure of the Governor. Members are entitled to compensation and expenses as provided in ORS 292.495 \(2021\).

One member must be a funeral service practitioner (GASKILL).

² ORS 244.050 \(2021\).

³ ORS 182.100 \(2021\) for affirmative action policy and ORS 236.115 \(2021\) for diversity criteria.

⁴ ORS 692.300 \(2021\).

Two members must be representatives of an immediate disposition company or a licensed funeral establishment, and at least one of the two must be a licensed embalmer (BONE).

Three members must be representatives of cemeteries, one representing a for-profit cemetery (MCKENZIE-TUCKER), one representing a nonprofit cemetery (FELTON), and one representing a cemetery owned or operated by a city, county, or special district (PORTER).

One member must be a representative of a crematorium or other facility for final disposition of human remains that is not a cemetery (COLLINS, LOVELAND).

Four members must be representatives of the public, one of whom must be a member of a recognized senior citizen organization (CANIZARES, GILMORE, HARRIS, PACHECO).

Duties and Authority

The board regulates death care facilities and practitioners in Oregon.

The board must:⁵

- offer examinations and issue licenses to applicants who meet specified qualifications;
- establish fees for the administration of licensing;
- meet at least semiannually and at such other times as it may determine;
- elect from its members, each for a term of one year, a president and secretary;
- inspect, at least once every two years, the premises and records of funeral establishments, cemeteries, crematoriums, immediate disposition companies, and other facilities used for the final disposition of human remains and any other location at which human remains may be stored, temporarily held, or processed prior to final disposition;
- employ one or more persons to perform inspections and to aid in the enforcement of the statutes and rules administered by the board;
- conduct an investigation upon receipt of a complaint;
- accord an opportunity for hearing when the board takes specified disciplinary actions;
- have a common seal;
- publish for distribution to funeral service practitioners, embalmers, and trainees of funeral service practitioners and embalmers, and to other interested persons, the statutes and rules administered by the board;
- adopt rules promoting environmentally sound death care practices;
- impose and collect a filing fee of $20 for each report of death, $6 of which must be dedicated to the board's role in the disposition of unclaimed bodies;
- adopt rules regarding the use of the fees; and
- maintain a list of institutions that may accept or process bodies for education or research purposes.

⁵ ORS 692.405-415 \(2021\), ORS 97.170 \(2021\).

The board may adopt and enforce rules for the protection of the public health, safety and welfare relating to the following:⁶

- the licensing of or issuance of certificates of authority for funeral service practitioners, embalmers, death care consultants, funeral establishments, crematoriums, cemeteries, and other facilities for final disposition of human remains;
- the registration of trainees;
- the practice of funeral service practitioners, embalmers, and death care consultants, including the operation of funeral establishments, immediate disposition companies, crematoriums, cemeteries and other facilities for final disposition of human remains;
- sanitary conditions of funeral establishments, crematoriums, cemeteries, other facilities for final disposition of human remains, and any location at which human remains are stored, temporarily held or processed prior to final disposition; and
- matters necessary to carry out the statutory provisions administered by the board.

The board may:⁷

- make random inspections or establish a self-inspection program to supplement mandatory inspections;
- adopt rules setting criteria by which an operating cemetery is exempt from mandatory inspections;
- hold hearings, conduct investigations, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and take testimony in order to carry out the provisions administered by the board;
- employ staff, fix the compensation for staff, and incur other necessary expenses;
- institute proceedings in the circuit courts to enforce obedience by injunction;
- investigate a complaint made by any person or by the board; and
- impose civil penalties, suspend or revoke a license to practice or to operate or a trainee registration, or refuse to grant or renew a license or registration for specified violations.

⁶ ORS 692.320 \(2021\).
