BACKGROUND:

The COVID-19 pandemic has exacerbated health care workforce shortages, leaving many health care facilities short-staffed. Appropriate staffing in health care facilities is essential to providing safe patient care and a safe work environment for health care providers. Volunteer health care providers also provide services to people who might not otherwise have access, including rural areas bordering other states.

House Bill 4096 A allows specified health care practitioners licensed in another state or territory to practice in Oregon without compensation for 30 days without obtaining state licensure.
