

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Josiah Collins. I think there should be more classes like this because I feel like it really benefits us colored people and I feel like even non-colored people can feel benefits from this class too. I think it's important to teach black kids their history because I feel like in schools we learn the same thing and never about black excellence and I feel like that's not fair to us. I feel like I learned so much more from being in this class and around this environment and different stories and people. There should be more opportunities.
