

Submitter: Nicolas Houtman

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Revenue

Measure: HB4115

I am surprised to learn that specific state investments are not currently available to the public. I support investment transparency in the interests of open and accountable government. And looking at these investments through a climate risk lens is entirely appropriate.