Measure: SB1521

It seems to me that every time a elected official does something not liked by the majority of a counsel they just come up with "Let's get rid of them," attitude. Why do we need a rule when every case is different. To allow a school board to have so much power without parents knowledge of the situation gives them way too much power! These members were elected by the people and why not let the people decide. We need to be level headed and calm down over every little thing that angers another. We will never be able to appease everyone, but everyone needs a say in free speech matters. This bill borderlines free speech.
