This idea seems like a terrible use of money. We have a massive meth problem on our streets and this will only lead to more overdoses. We are already taxed to the max and are watching our streets turn into endless piles of garbage and feces all over. Why pay the people who are doing this? 750$ isn't enough to live off of, to get into housing.. it's enough for drugs.

Instead use any money for drug rehabs, homeless services, pod villages, lots for RVs so they aren't parked by schools

This is the worst idea I've heard from this city.
