Dear Chair Holvey and Members of the House Business and Labor Committee,

I am writing to you today in support of farmworker overtime.

Throughout the pandemic and through every natural disaster we've had in Oregon - heat wave, wildfires, ice storms - farmworkers have never failed to show up to do work. They are truly essential workers. Yet they are denied something other workers take for granted - overtime pay.

Our farmworkers deserve equal treatment and the same quality of life as any other worker. They are doing important, hard, and dangerous work in one of the largest sectors of our state economy, and they are essential in feeding families across Oregon. Yet farmworkers are denied the same overtime pay that other workers in Oregon receive.

It is time for Oregon to join several other states in ending this racist practice of excluding agricultural workers from overtime pay.

Farmworkers should receive overtime pay after 40 hours in a workweek at one and one-half times the employee's regular rate of pay.

I urge you to pass farmworker overtime in the 2022 Legislative Session to ensure farmworkers in Oregon are paid fairly for their skilled and essential labor.

Sincerely,
Sarah Rohrs
