Oregon does not need a sales tax!

We have entirely too many taxes now and if Oregon got the sales tax, they would expand it, raise it, and it would never go away.

The poor folks in Oregon already have numerous support systems and bleeding heart liberals to fund every possible cause or need the poor or homeless may experience.

Many of the homeless and poor in Oregon can work but refuse to do so because they are too lazy, and because the liberals in this state believe it is their obligation to provide cradle to grave freebies and benefits for them, and many of the BIPOC people as well. Oregonians cannot afford and should not allow every special interest group to be funded at tax payers expense simply because of their color and/or their personal beliefs.

Hard working Oregonians are the backbone of Oregon's economy but many minority groups want us to pay for their chosen lifestyles and that is egregious, and very wrong to simply expect everyone else to support ones laziness, personal perversion, and in many cases their own stupidity!

No more taxes!!!
