Measure: HB4079

HB 7049 proposes a luxury tax on Oregonians. Oregonians have repeatedly voted down a sales tax. In addition to being unwanted, in its current state, this bill does not specify at what point an item begins to be considered a "luxury." Legislators would be free to lower the price point at will. Oregon currently has record revenues. Rather than gathering additional taxes, Oregon should be using her current money wisely.

Please vote no on HB 7049.
