Measure: HB4131

This bill was just passed last year. even if there are flaws in it (there aren't), it is too soon to know. we have not had big protests like we had in 2020; so we have not tested the new rules.

at all the protests i have been at, generally it is the presence of the police, in their militaristic riot gear, who cause the problems. they aren't trying to keep the peace; they are trying to dominate. they aren't protecting; they are doing the harming and the law-breaking.

remember, most of the "crime" in portland is related to being homeless, not actual danger to anyone. don't fall for the police lies. we don't need more "tools' to control people. we need tools to control the police.

this bill is unnecessary.
