

I am opposed to the delegation of authority to the Oregon Health Authority to declare health emergencies. This would be an infringement on the rights of Oregonians and could have huge impacts on the freedoms of citizens. The misuse of this authority by the Governor caused many businesses to fail and took a huge toll on the public health generally.

Daryl Meekins

Halsey, Oregon