Measure: HB4131

Vote no on HB 4131. There is no emergency. There is no crisis. People are not rioting in the street. There is no need for this bill. Instead of worrying about non-violent protests, instead of giving police more power to brutalize citizens exercising their rights, politicians should be working on finding ways to build affordable housing quicker and cheaper. Deal with the real emergencies: homelessness, lack of mental health services, lack of drug treatment services, systemic racism, hunger.
