Informational Meeting

Property Tax Senior Deferral Program
Legislative Revenue Office

Public Hearing

SB 655

Provides, for purposes of ad valorem property taxation, frozen assessed value for homestead of individual at least 68 years of age, or person with disability, if homestead and individual would be eligible for homestead property tax deferral program but for fact that homestead is pledged as security for reverse mortgage.

SB 772

Requires Legislative Revenue Officer to study homestead property tax deferral program.

SB 975

Requires Department of Revenue to study use of tax increment financing revenue received by urban renewal agency to finance infrastructure outside urban renewal area to compensate for displacement of persons by urban renewal agency's projects within area.
