

Department of Forestry & Oregon's Forests

Ryan Gordon, Planning Director

Josh Barnard, Chief, Forest Resources Division

Who owns Oregon's Forests?

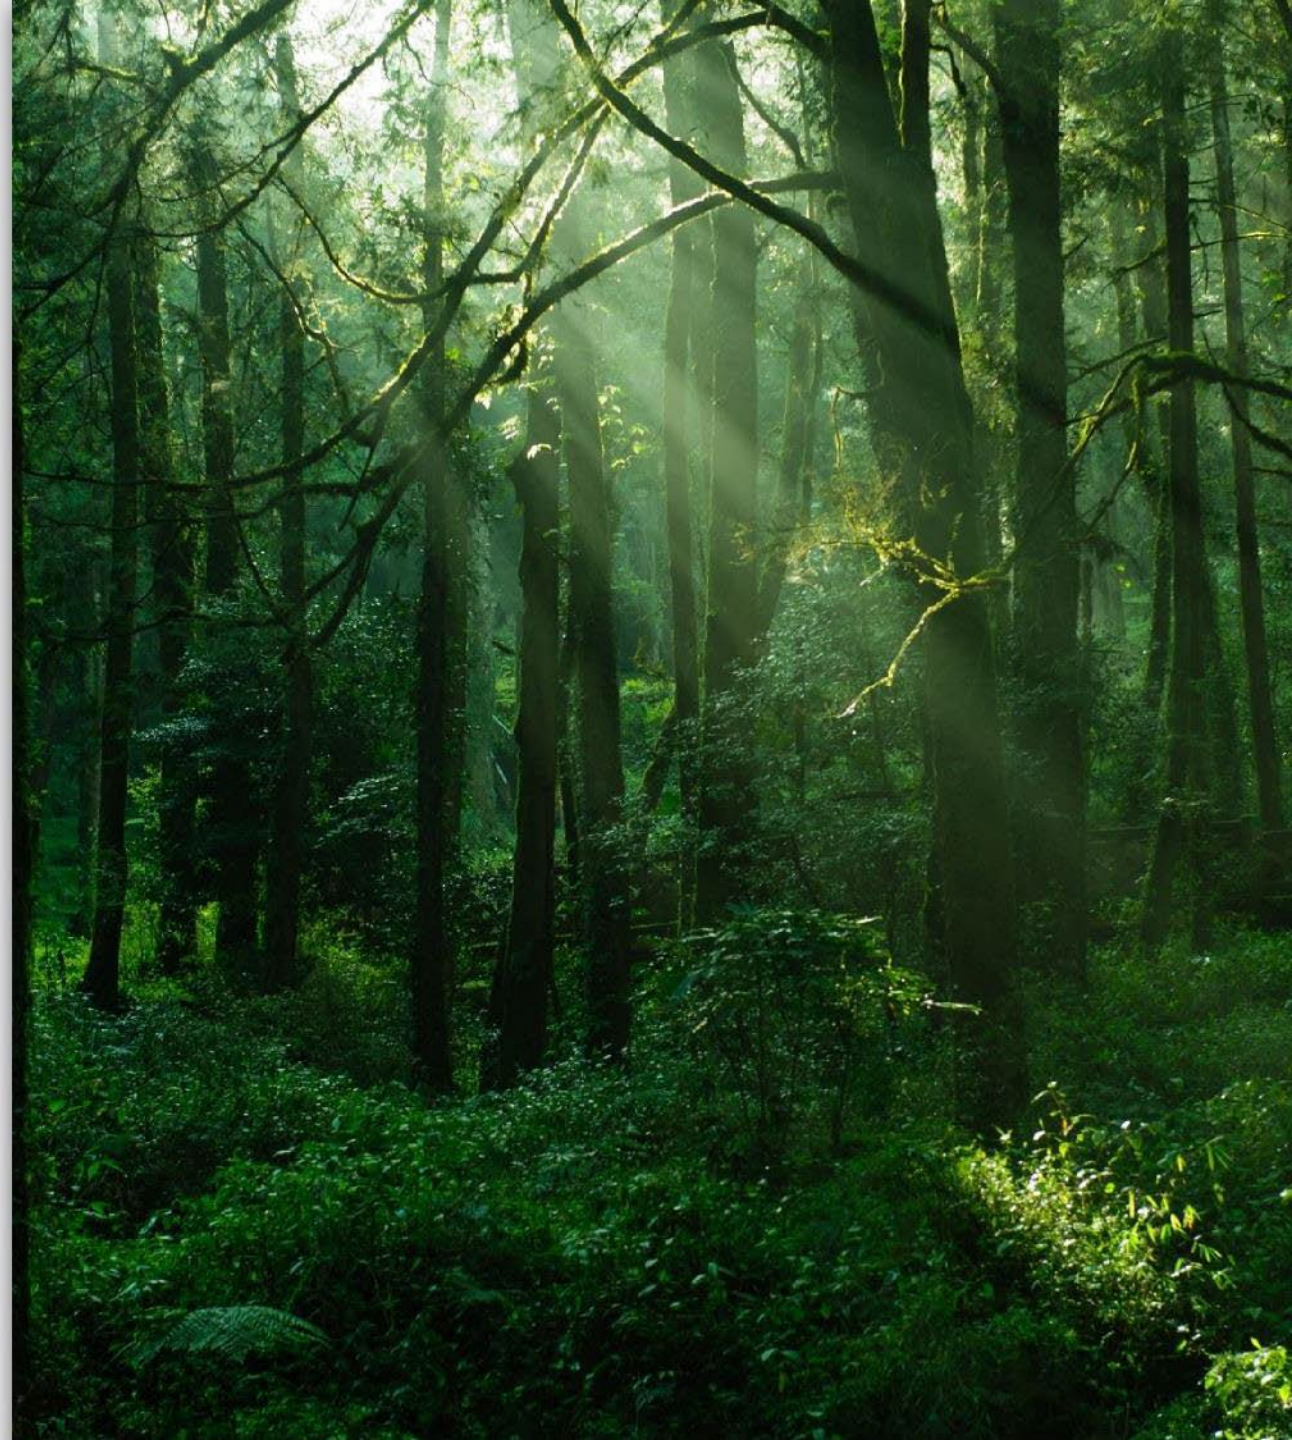

Fire Protection Division

- Protection for 16.2 million acres of private, state, local and some federal lands.
- Complete and coordinated system
- Fire prevention
- Smoke mitigation
- Large fire funding

State Forests Division

- Management of 730,000 acres of working forests for greatest permanent value
 - Economic, environmental & social
- Funded by timber sales
- HCP & FMP

Forest Resources Division

- Administration of the Forest Practices Act
- Forest health
- Landowner assistance
- Urban & community forestry
- Landscape resiliency
- Federal Forest Restoration & Good Neighbor Authority
- Private Forest Accord

Questions?