BACKGROUND:

The Student Success Act, House Bill 3427 (2019), created the Hunger Free Schools Account in the State Treasury. The Oregon Department of Education (ODE) can use the account to reimburse eligible school districts for the costs of offering reimbursable breakfast and lunch free of charge; eligible districts include both those that are eligible to provide meals to all students under federal law, and those that are not federally eligible but provide meals to students from households up to 300 percent of the poverty line. The second group of districts is reimbursed by the Oregon Expanded Income Eligibility Group (EIG) Reimbursement Program, which is entirely state funded. House Bill 2536 (2021) required school districts in Oregon that are eligible to offer meals to all students at no charge under the National School Lunch Program to do so.

House Bill 2760 (2019) and House Bill 2761 (2019) also proposed policies to reimburse school districts for providing school meals; however, these measures did not pass. House Bill 3030 reintroduces the language of House Bill 2760 (2019) for establishing a Universal School Meal Account.

House Bill 3030 establishes the Universal School Meal Account for the purposes of reimbursing the costs of offering reimbursable breakfast and lunch free of charge, if those costs are not otherwise reimbursed.
