No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

The federal E-Rate program, administered by the Federal Communications Commission, helps schools and libraries obtain affordable broadband. The State Library of Oregon (SLO) publishes information about the program, eligibility for participation, and the application process. House Bill 4092 \(2022\) created the Connecting Oregon Libraries Fund as part of a telecommunications omnibus. Moneys in the fund are appropriated to the State Library of Oregon to match federal dollars received by libraries to provide broadband access.

Senate Bill 885 appropriates $205,000 from the General Fund to the State Library of Oregon to hire a consultant to help libraries apply for federal moneys to provide broadband access, and appropriates $750,000 from the General Fund to the Connecting Oregon Libraries Fund to match federal dollars received by libraries to provide broadband access.
