BACKGROUND:

Public contracting is governed by the Public Contracting Code (Code) and governs contracting activities (ORS chapter 279A), the procurement of goods and services (ORS chapter 279B) The Code applies to public bodies authorized to conduct procurements, including state governments, local governments, and special governments. Several government entities are exempt from the Code, including the judicial and legislative department. Generally, a contracting agency awards contracts to the lowest bidder or best proposer. However, the Code contains provisions allowing contracting agencies to give preference in certain circumstances.

Currently a contracting agency may grant preference in the procurement of goods or services, for a public use, that are fabricated, processed, or have services performed in Oregon, when the cost is not more than ten percent greater than the out-of-state goods.

Senate Bill 442 A adds a provision allowing a contracting agency to grant preference in the procurement of goods or services that are fabricated, processed, or have services performed in Oregon when the cost is not more than five percent greater than the goods not processed or fabricated, or services are not performed in Oregon, and the contracting agency determines that the cost offsets environmental costs attributable to the transportation of out-of-state goods or services.
