A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to encouragement of reading in young children; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) The Oregon Imagination Library Project is established for the purpose of improving third-grade reading proficiency and high school graduation rates by providing free books to young children in this state.

(2)(a) The Department of Early Learning and Care shall develop, implement and administer the project. The department shall ensure that, under the project, every enrolled child has the opportunity to receive an age-appropriate book each month.

(b) A child is eligible to be enrolled if the child is at least four years of age and has not started kindergarten.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection, the department may determine that children younger than four years of age may be eligible to be enrolled if resources are available to enroll younger children.

(3) For the purpose of administering the project, the department may enter into a contract with:

(a) A national book gifting foundation that works in collaboration with local nonprofit organizations and government agencies to provide free books to children from birth until the children begin school.

(b) One or more school districts, nonprofit organizations or other entities that are exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code to collaborate with the department to:

(A) Provide outreach to local communities about the project;

(B) Recruit volunteers to assist in the implementation and administration of the project;

(C) Solicit donations, gifts and other funding to financially support the project;

(D) Develop a process for enrolling children in the project; or

(E) Enroll children in the project.

(4) The department may require that any nonprofit organization or other entity that is exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and that enters
