

Senate Bill 572

Sponsored by Senator GELSER BLOUIN, Representative RUIZ (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Requires Higher Education Coordinating Commission to work with Portland State University and community colleges to establish post-secondary program for youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Specifies requirements of program.

Appropriates moneys to commission for allocation to Portland State University to support Career and Community Studies program.

Appropriates moneys to commission for allocation to community colleges that participate in establishing program for youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Declares emergency, effective July 1, 2023.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

1
2 Relating to post-secondary education for individuals with disabilities; and declaring an emergency.

3 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

4 SECTION 1. (1) The Higher Education Coordinating Commission shall work with Portland
5 State University and community colleges operated under ORS chapter 341 to establish a
6 program that provides a full post-secondary educational experience for youth with intellec-
7 tual and developmental disabilities.

8 (2) The program established under subsection (1) of this section shall:

9 (a) Establish and plan for the expansion of an individualized model of support that pro-
10 vides the opportunity to learn and succeed within a community college experience to youth
11 with intellectual and developmental disabilities who enroll in a two-year program at partic-
12 ipating community colleges;

13 (b) Ensure that youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities who complete a 14 two-year program at participating community colleges have the option to complete their 15 studies in the nondegree prebaccalaureate Career and Community Studies program at 16 Portland State University;

17 (c) Provide individualized support for youth with intellectual and developmental disabili-
18 ties across inclusive academic, employment and social engagement activities at the campus
19 of each participating community college and at Portland State University;

20 (d) Include, to the degree possible, partnership with community stakeholders and 21 nonprofit organizations to provide needed employment and community living supports to 22 youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities;

23 (e) Prepare youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities for post-graduation
24 outcomes, including pathways to employment that are aligned with career goals and that 25 promote independent living and engagement within neighborhoods and communities;

26 (f) Support the commitment of community college and public university faculty to es-
27 tablish instructional routines that serve a full range of learners through a focused universal 28 design for learning; and

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 (g) Support equitable access to an inclusive college experience for youth with intellectual
2 and developmental disabilities by encouraging undergraduate students and graduate students
3 to serve as academic coaches, peer navigators and career counselors for youth with intel-
4 lectual and developmental disabilities.

5 (3) As used in this section, “youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities” means
6 individuals between 16 and 26 years of age with an intellectual or developmental disability 7 who:

8 (a) Require modifications to the standard academic curriculum in order to successfully 9 engage in coursework, integrated supported employment and social activities; and

10 (b)(A) Enroll in the nondegree prebaccalaureate Career and Community Studies program
11 at Portland State University; or

12 (B) Enroll at a community college in a two-year program that is developed under this 13 section.

14 SECTION 2. In addition to and not in lieu of any other appropriation, there is appropri-
15 ated to the Higher Education Coordinating Commission, for the biennium beginning July 1,
16 2023, out of the General Fund, the amount of $600,000, to be allocated to Portland State
17 University for the support of the Career and Community Studies program, including the ac-
18 ademic support, job development and employment services components of the program.

19 SECTION 3. In addition to and not in lieu of any other appropriation, there is appropri-
20 ated to the Higher Education Coordinating Commission, for the biennium beginning July 1,
21 2023, out of the General Fund, the amount of $900,000, to be allocated to community colleges
22 that participate in establishing the program for youth with intellectual and developmental 23 disabilities described in section 1 of this 2023 Act.

24 SECTION 4. This 2023 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public
25 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2023 Act takes effect
26 on July 1, 2023.