

Hello,

I'm writing to let you know I am in support of HB 2004. I have stayed informed on this issue and my interest goes back several years. I feel RCV has evolved and improved along the way moving towards best practices. I lean towards optimism vs. cynicism which takes more effort and risk.

I truly feel that RCV represents the best path forward to create civil elections; giving everyone a voice while elevating some qualified candidates who might otherwise be left on the sidelines.

We need more optimism and inclusion.

Thank you,
