Measure: HB2004

Ranked choice voting is one of the key elements of real democracy, not pretend democracy because how can there be real democracy without real choice?

Currently many people feel forced to vote for a candidate they really don't want because they are more afraid of the other side winning. Third parties effectively have no chance because of this. There is an illusion of choice but so many people are effectively prevented from voting for the candidate they really want because of the fear factor.

Please support this bill and any others which help create a system with real choice.
