

Submitter: Madison Headley

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure: HB2004

It is my strong belief that ranked choice voting has worked very well in places where it has been implemented. It allows voters to list someone they fully support as their first choice without worrying about how other people may be voting. I urge the committee to move this bill forward.