Measure: HB2004

This idea is disgusting and lacks a substantial amount of morals and ethics. The fact that anyone in Oregon office thinks they have the right to act against the vote that got them there to begin with, is absolutely pathetic. Votes will be the reason not one of you pogresses in your "political careers."

Get a moral compass. Or even half a descent idea. You're embarrassing yourselves.

I'd like to see your personal budgets in your own lives. I'm sure they wouldn't disappoint.

Zero respect for this idea, and those who are ignorant enough to support your joke of an idea.

So embarrassing. Go home.
