

Submitter: Brea Ariola
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Senate Committee On Rules
Measure: HB2004

Our votes should count, and they should count equally. Adding process delays for counting and recounting in increasingly more crowded candidate slates will only cause more voter apathy and lower turnout as time goes on. Soon the only voters will be those highly committed, demographically older and more conservative causing imbalance in representation for Oregonians.