

Submitter: Linda Voci
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Rules
Measure: HCR8

Rescued shelter dogs and cats should be Oregon's Official State Pet because once an animal is adopted it leaves a spot for another rescued animal to take it's place. Most Oregonian's would much rather adopt a cat or dog from a shelter...it just makes sense. These animals are loving. The shelter people work really hard to make certain animals get adopted.