

Submitter: Gracee Moen
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary
Measure: SB579

I support the right to vote for incarcerated people because incarceration should not strip one of their foundational tenets of citizenry. Enough is taken from people when they serve time, but their participation in a democracy which they are a member of - regardless of their state of incarceration - should not be one of them.