

Submitter: Karen Schoenfeld
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary
Measure: SB579

I believe incarcerated persons, already serving or having served time for their wrongdoings, should not additionally lose their fundamental right to vote. Especially for those who have served their terms, their rights should be restored to the extent there is no risk of harm to others. These persons offer a unique perspective and their voices should count.