

Submitter: Safiyya Algellal

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure: SB579

Incarcerated folks are citizens that are impacted by policy. They should have the right to vote AND have access to voting AND be counted as voters in their home communities. Any policy that takes the right to vote away from anyone is a racist policy; there is a disproportionate number of people of color stuck in the prison system, and not letting them vote only contributes to the silencing of their voices.