

Submitter: Ryan Grigsby

On Behalf Of: Otis Gardens

Committee: House Committee On Economic Development and Small Business

Measure: HB2505

With market saturation happening across the state, increasing tax on sales is only going to detriment the ability for small producers and retailers to survive the inflated economy. Jobs are already being threatened across the state as well as large producers uprooting and jumping ship like Curaleaf recently had decided.