

Submitter: Ruby Garmyn

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB799

In opposition to Oregon SB 799

This proposed law would put a burden on mom-and-pop landlords and might force them to sell the property probably as a personal residence to the new owner which would take the home of the rental market which is the opposite of what's needed.