

Submitter: Patricia Jermov

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB767

I support school choice, not because of spite, but because it would benefit all parties in education- parent, student and teacher.

Have the money allocated for education follow the student and see the best teacher follow as well.